THE ALABAMA

Composed by

T. VON LA HACHE.

Intrada

p

POLKA

schertz.

The first system of musical notation is for the 'Intrada' section. It consists of two staves, treble and bass, in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The treble staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic and features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. A double bar line separates the 'Intrada' from the 'POLKA' section, which begins with a 'schertz.' (scherzo) tempo marking.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It also consists of two staves, treble and bass, in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp. The melody in the treble staff continues with various rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff continues with its accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.

brillante

The first system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. It features a series of chords and melodic lines. A piano (p) dynamic marking is present in the second measure. The system concludes with a fermata over the final chord.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It includes a fortissimo (ff) dynamic marking followed by the instruction con fuoco (with fire). The system ends with a double bar line.

Finale

The third system of musical notation is marked Finale on the left. It begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The fourth system of musical notation features a fortissimo (ff) dynamic marking. It concludes with a double bar line.

The fifth system of musical notation begins with a fortissimo (ff) dynamic marking, followed by the instruction con fuoco. The system concludes with a double bar line.
